Dear Golden Gopher Baseball Alumni, Parents and Fans,

First of all, let me personally thank you for your continued support of the Golden Gopher Baseball program. During my 37 years as the head baseball coach, a tremendous network of people have aided me and made significant contributions to help foster and grow our great winning tradition. Through the years, the Dugout Club has been the driving force that has enhanced the baseball student-athlete experience in many significant ways. I truly understand and sincerely appreciate how important each and every person who has been a Dugout Club member over the years and how their involvement has contributed to our success. Combine the contributions and efforts of all the quality players, assistant coaches, alumni, boosters and our special fans and you have a program that I am extremely proud of and honored to lead.

As we embark on the 131st season of Golden Gopher Baseball, the 2019 schedule features many outstanding teams from some of the top conferences in the country. Unable to schedule games at U.S. Bank Stadium this season as they prepare for the NCAA Final Four in April, we were left with only one option, to play the first 21 games in February and March on the road. With six of our weekend series against programs who were in the NCAA Tournament last season the competition will be challenging, but will help prepare us for the challenges of Big Ten Conference play. We will continue to prepare our team through the coming months for the opening weekend at Surprise, AZ that features four games vs. Oregon State, Gonzaga and New Mexico. The five-week non-conference road trip ends with a series at Long Beach State and we open the Big Ten Conference the following weekend at Penn State on March 22-24.

Our home schedule begins on March 29-31 vs. Nebraska at beautiful Siebert Field. I invite you to welcome the team home by filling the stadium for this series and catching some exciting Big Ten action. The rest of the home Big Ten schedule will feature Illinois, Ohio State and Maryland. Non-conference games will feature a weekend series with Oklahoma, with the Saturday, April 20 game at Target Field. Mid-week games with North Dakota State, South Dakota State, Milwaukee and Neb-Omaha round out the 21 game home schedule.

Please mark your calendars so we can fill the ballpark and provide our players with a fun-filled environment to compete in each time we take the field. Please reserve your seat now for this exciting home schedule and I promise you will have a great time in our fan-friendly Siebert Field.

Baseball at the "U" is rooted in tradition and achievement, but it just doesn't happen. In order for the tradition to grow, we need you to invest in our student-athletes by joining the Dugout Club, purchasing season tickets and attending as many home games as possible. Your presence gives us that all-important home-field advantage and allows us to create the right atmosphere, so the players and fans alike can experience the excitement of college baseball.

Let us all work together to make the 2019 season another historic campaign. On behalf of the entire Golden Gopher Baseball Family, I thank you in advance for all your generous support.

See you at the ballpark!

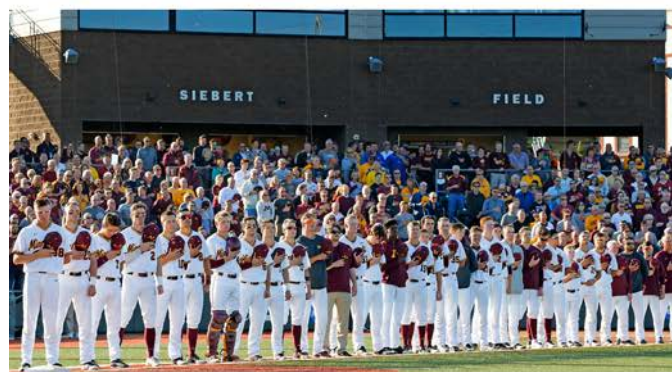

John Anderson, Head Baseball Coach
